

Rachael was Daddy Pig and Ted was Peppa pig. Rachael asked Ted what they could do together. Ted suggested a walk up a mountain. Ted decided to make a mountain out of the sofa cushions. The characters walked up the mountain and Rachael said 'Daddy pig is stuck and can't get back down the mountain. '

Ted used his phone to call Fireman Sam to come to the rescue.

Ted said that Fireman Sam was busy having a tea party.

Rachael explained to Ted that it was an emergency which meant that Sam would have to come straight away.

Sam came in the fire engine and when they got to the top

Ted realised that Daddy pig couldn't fit in the fire engine to be able to get down. Together Rachael and Ted thought about how they could rescue Daddy pig.

Ted decided that rolling Daddy pig down the hill would be the best way.

When everyone was down from the mountains Ted thought that it would be a great idea for them all to go finish the tea party.
