

THE VALUES VISITOR

2024

VALUE SUMMER 1: RESPECT

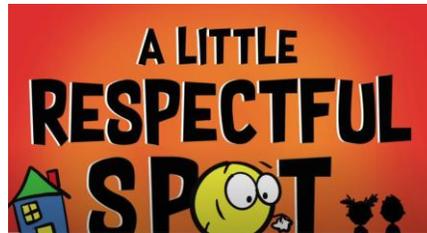

This half term, we will be focusing on the value of Respect. We will be using the short story The Best Me That I Can Be.

This book helps to teach children:

- How to respect places, such as different parts of their school but also out in the world as well.
- How to respect things, including how to make things last.
- How to respect people and show politeness to people of all ages.

WHO WILL OUR NEXT VALUES HERO BE?

The values hero's awards will now be nominated by children in classes. If your child is nominated, Mrs Sharkey-Bond will contact you to find out if your child has also been showing the value at home as well.

Books you could read with your child to support the value:

A Little Respectful Spot (YouTube).

Respect: The Best Me That I Can Be by Rose Angebrandt (YouTube)

What can you do at home?

The children have been given this list of ideas for how they could show respect.

How will we show respect?

- We will make sure school equipment lasts as long as possible.
We will clear up after ourselves.
- We will ask, not take.
- We will find out the rules for different places and follow them.
- We will give people their personal space and listen to them.
- We will listen to ourselves and set boundaries with others.
- We will talk calmly and politely to people of all ages.
